

HOWELL OVERRULED AT LINCOLN MEETING

Fails to Get His Amendment Providing for Convention Plan Through.

IS ONLY ONE VOTING FOR IT

(From a Staff Correspondent.)
LINCOLN, Sept. 20.—(Special).—The meeting held yesterday to perfect plans for carrying out a campaign for a constitutional convention was not all harmonious. As a general thing all present were anxious for a convention, but the way to get it and the methods to be used brought out a great deal of discussion, although at the close all appeared to be in harmony with the plan adopted.

The real fight of the meeting came when R. B. Howell of Omaha opposed the plans of the committee which called for the circulation of petitions calling upon voters to express at the next election their choice of whether they favored a constitutional convention or not, the calling of the convention to be governed by the feelings of the voters.

Howell Opposes Plan.
Mr. Howell opposed the plan and offered a substitute that the committee should at once draw up a new constitution and submit it to the voters at the next election. He advanced the novel argument in favor of his plan that it would not carry because the "special interests" would be so much opposed to the new constitution that they would defeat it by promising the people that if it was defeated that the legislature would then go to work and call a constitutional convention. He said the plan was a good one because it would make a campaign of education and prepare the people for the adoption of the new constitution and besides the thing could be done in one-half the time taken for the plan of the committee.

M. A. Hall of Omaha wanted to know what authority Mr. Howell had for assuming the meeting that the "special interests" would promise the people that the legislature would call a constitutional convention if the voters would vote down the constitution prepared by the committee and again if he thought the members of the legislature would vote for something the people had rejected at the polls. Some one else put a crimp in Mr. Howell's plan by telling him that the legislature had no authority to call a constitutional convention, but could only submit the proposition of a convention to the people.

When the vote was put Mr. Howell's amendment was defeated. Mr. Howell himself being the only one voting for his plan.

The plan of the committee as finally revised is as follows:

That Article Fifteen (15), entitled "amendments" of the constitution of the state of Nebraska be, and hereby is, amended by adding thereto the following section:

Section 3. A convention to revise, amend or change the constitution shall be held at the state capitol, beginning the second Tuesday of October, 1915, and continuing until the business of such convention is completed. The convention shall consist of as many delegates as there are members of the house of representatives, apportioned as now provided by law for representatives, who shall be chosen at the general election to be held in November, 1915, in the manner provided by sections 229, 230 and 231, of the revised statutes of Nebraska, 1913 for the non-partisan choice of judges, except that candidates for nomination in any district shall not be required to file a petition signed by a number of voters greater than 1 per cent of the votes therein for governor at the last preceding general election.

Each delegate shall receive as compensation $100 per day, not exceeding $200 in all, and the same mileage as members of the legislature. The convention shall have the power to appoint such officers, employees and assistants as it may deem necessary, and fix their compensation, and to provide for the printing of its documents, journal and proceedings. The convention shall determine the rules of its own proceedings, choose its own officers and be the judge of the election returns and qualifications of the delegates. Any elector shall be disqualified for election as a delegate to the convention. Vacancies shall be filled in the same manner as for members of the legislature.

A majority of the delegates elected to the convention shall constitute a quorum. Any amendment to the constitution shall be submitted to the electors at the time to be provided by the convention, not earlier than three months after its adjournment, and not later than the first general election held thereafter, and in such manner that the electors may vote on each amendment separately, and votes cast thereon shall be counted separately as though but one amendment was submitted.

Any amendment shall become a part of the constitution when approved by a majority of the electors voting thereon, and shall take effect thirty days after its adoption by the governor, which shall be made within ten days of the completion of the official canvass. The vote upon any amendment submitted by the convention shall be returned and canvassed in the manner provided by law in the case of presidential elections.

Rev. Mr. Preston Of Florence Dies As Result of Fall

Rev. Joseph Preston, retired minister of the Congregational church, residing in Florence, died at his home there Saturday night of injuries sustained when he fell from the porch of his house, one week ago Sunday. Rev. Mr. Preston was nearly 79 years of age and had been in the ministry nearly fifty years. He had lived in Florence four years and retired from active work in the ministry some ten years ago, though since then he had frequently done supply work.

Rev. Mr. Preston was a member of the Plymouth Congregational church of Omaha and although feeble from the infirmities of old age, for the last few years he had been a constant and regular attendant at the morning services. For a number of years he had charges in Nebraska, several years ago having been located at Irvington. The funeral will be from the Plymouth Congregational church Tuesday afternoon, with burial in Forest Lawn. Rev. F. W. Leavitt will officiate. One week ago last Sunday Rev. Mr. Preston was walking on the porch of his home, when he slipped and fell. His head was cut and bruised and Tuesday he became unconscious, remaining so during the remainder of his life. He is survived by his widow, one son, Rev. Onie Preston, a preacher at Canton, S. D., and a daughter, Miss Ethel, who lived with her parents.

Chickens Come Home to Roost

By ERNEST M'GAFFEY.

Recited by Mr. Sunday at Conclusion of His Sermon to Men Sunday.

You may take the world as it comes and it goes,
And you will be sure to find
That fate will square the account she owes
Whoever comes out behind;
And all things bad that a man has done,
By whatsoever induced,
Return at last to him one by one,
As the chickens come home to roost.

You may scrape and toil and pinch and save
While your hoarded wealth expands,
Till the cool, dark shadow of the grave
Is nearing your life's last sands;
You will find your balances struck some night,
And you'll find your hoard reduced;
You'll view your life in another light,
When the chickens come home to roost.

You can stint your soul and starve your heart
With the husks of a barren creed,
But Christ will know if you play a part,
Will know in your hour of need;
And then as you wait for death to come,
What hope can there be deduced
From a creed alone? You will lie there dumb
While your chickens come home to roost.

Sow as you will, there's a time to reap,
For the good and the bad as well,
And conscience, whether we wake or sleep,
Is either a heaven or hell,
And every wrong will find a place,
And every passion loosed
Drifts back and meets you face to face,
When the chickens come home to roost.

Whether you're over or under the sod,
The result will be the same;
You cannot escape the hand of God;
You must bear your sin or shame,
No matter what's carved on a marble slab,
When the items are produced,
You'll find that St. Peter was keeping tab,
When the chickens come home to roost.

NEW JURY DRAWN BY NEW SYSTEM

Jury Commissioner System Now in Vogue for Selecting Panels for District Court.

MANY NAMES ARE WITHDRAWN

One hundred and twenty-eight of the 150 drawn under the new jury commission system for service for the next two weeks in district court were present when the fall term of court was formally opened by District Judge English.

The law provides that excuses for statutory cause and by lot shall reduce the number to 120, but Judge English found it necessary to excuse eighteen men and only 110 remained.

The eighteen were disqualified or excused for the following causes:
Over 65 years old, 4.
Under 25 years, 2.
Interested in pending cases, 2.
Minister of the gospel, 1.
Mail carriers, 2.
Defective hearing, 2.
Served as jurors within year, 2.
Sickness in family, 1.
Sick, 1.
Physician, 1.

Two Could Not Hear.
The new jury system was inaugurated without unusual event except for a touch of humor.

"All those who are deaf are disqualified," announced Judge English in his customary tone of voice.

Two men stepped forward.
A ripple of laughter swept the court room, but the two men after presenting their cases to the judge were excused.

Cases were assigned to the various court rooms by the presiding judge and the annual grind of the district court had begun.

Captain Briggs of South Side Police Is for Sunday Now

Police Captain John Briggs of the South Side is a "Billy" Sunday enthusiast. Yesterday John attended the men-only meeting at the tabernacle and after hearing the evangelist talk is for him hot and heavy.

"I tell you, boys," Briggs said last evening after he had encouraged the station men to attend the meetings, "I am all for 'Billy' Sunday. He is sincere.

"I know I sinnered him and thought he was merely a grifter and out for the money. But now I know that I was wrong and so you will find going to have heard him once. I'm going to attend every meeting after this if I can get time.

"No, I won't hit the sawdust trail just yet," the captain said. "When I begin to feel that way there is many a church I can join. But, say, you ought to see the rousers' up there, sneaking in the back doors trying their best not to be seen. I tell you, boys, I'm not the only one to recognize a good sincere man when I see him. You just find out for yourselves."

ARTICLES BY MRS. HOUSEMAN APPEAR IN THE CONTINENT

There has appeared in recent issues of the Continent of Chicago, the most widely circulated weekly periodical of the Presbyterian church, two articles by Mrs. Ralph H. Houseman of this city. One was on "Church Developing a Cradle Roll," and the other on "Cradle Roll Developing a Church." These stories, with the addition of thirty-five cradle roll suggestions are appearing in a leaflet of sixteen pages.

His Head Was Broken.
O. D. Wright, Rosemont, Neb., writes: "For about six months I was bothered with shooting and continual pains in the region of my kidneys. My rest was broken nearly every night by frequent actions of my kidneys. I was advised by my doctor to try Foley Kidney Pills and one 10-cent bottle made a well man of me. I can always recommend Foley Kidney Pills for I know they are good." This splendid remedy for backache, rheumatism, sore muscles and swollen joints contains no habit forming drugs. ## CATTLE RECORD OF OMAHA IS BROKEN

Run of 17,183 Head Received at Local Yards, Breaking Record Made in 1914.

SHEEP MARKET LEADS WORLD

The biggest cattle run in the history of the Omaha yards was recorded Monday. The run totaled 626 cars, making 17,183 head. The previous record was made October 19, 1914, when 627 cars, containing 16,776 head, were received.

In addition Omaha was the big sheep market today. One hundred and forty cars, containing 38,574 head, were received. Omaha's sheep run surpassed the runs of Chicago, Kansas City and St. Joseph put together.

Thirty-seven cars of horses, totalling 471 head, and twenty-two cars of hogs, containing 2,146 head, were also received. The total number of cars received was 622, and the railroads reported an additional sixty-one cars enroute which would arrive before 3 o'clock.

GERMANY REJOICES IN POSSESSION OF HELIGOLAND

(Correspondence of the Associated Press.)
AMSTERDAM, July 27.—The German newspapers publish long eulogies of the German emperor on the occasion of the twenty-fifth anniversary of the signing of the agreement with Great Britain for the cession to Germany of the island of Heligoland.

The editors pay tribute to the emperor's foresight in obtaining the island, without which the present defense of the German coast and the development of the German navy would have been impossible. "Had the emperor not taken Heligoland," remarks one editor, "the present war would have been impossible for Germany."

A FINE TREATMENT FOR CATARRH

EASY TO MAKE AND COSTS LITTLE

Catarrh is such an insidious disease and has become so prevalent during the past few years that its treatment should be understood by all.

Science has fully proved that Catarrh is a constitutional disease and therefore requires a constitutional treatment. Sprays, inhalers, salves and nose douches seldom if ever give lasting benefit and often drive the disease further down the air passages and into the lungs.

If you have Catarrh or Catarrhal deafness or head-noises, go to your druggist and get one ounce of Parmit (Double strength). Take this home and add to it 1/4 pint of hot water and 4 ounces of granulated sugar; stir until dissolved, take one tablespoonful 4 times a day.

This will often bring quick relief from the distressing head noises, clogged nostrils should open, breathing become easy and mucus stop dropping into the throat. This treatment has a slight tonic action which makes it especially effective in cases where the blood has become thin and weak. It is easy to make, tastes pleasant and costs little. Every person who wishes to be free from this destructive disease should give this treatment a trial.—Advertisement.

How to Keep Face Young and attractive

The way to ward off old age is not to fear it, not to allow one's self to be oppressed by the dread of advancing years. Use only legitimate preventives and avoid trying experiments with preparations not endorsed by physicians. An entirely safe and very effective way to keep the complexion young-looking and beautiful is to simply ordinary mercurized wax at bedtime, using it like cold cream, washing it off in the morning. This gradually absorbs the withered, faded cuticle, which is replaced by the more youthful, pink-tinted under-skin. One ounce of this wax to be had at any drug store, is enough to completely rejuvenate a worn-out complexion.

Crow's feet and other wrinkles, the first signs of advancing age, may be removed by a simple, harmless preparation made by dissolving an ounce of powdered wax in a half pint of witch hazel. It is used as a face bath.—National Hygienic Review.—Advertisement.

Rev. "Billy" Sunday Takes a Day Off; Calls On The Bee

Rev. William A. Sunday was a caller at The Bee office yesterday in company with F. D. Wead. He said he called to express his appreciation of the splendid manner in which The Bee is covering the "Sunday" meetings at the Tabernacle. "I would like to have Mr. Sunday see the portrait you have of your father," said Mr. Wead to Mr. Rosewater, who thereupon took them into his private office, where the visitor manifested special interest in the souvenir portraits of prominent men that adorn the walls, particularly George W. Childs and William McKinley, and of the last Chicago republican convention.

"That's the big convention you presided over," exclaimed Sunday. Then, seeing the picture of Mr. Childs, "There's the founder of the Philadelphia Ledger, that now belongs to Mr. Curtis. He's a good friend of mine, and so is Mr. Bok of the Ladies' Home Journal, also owned by Mr. Curtis. I have a lot of warm friends among newspaper men. Do you know 'Lafe' Young of the Des Moines Capital and Harvey Ingham of the Register? They are both good friends of mine, and also 'Jim' Keely of the Chicago Herald. I've known him a long time."

Mr. Sunday put in part of his off day Monday sauntering around town with Mr. Wead and looking into the big office buildings and making several calls.
